

Terms and Conditions of Use for CALMAC Weather Files

CALMAC wishes to thank White Box Technologies, Inc. (WBT) for the use of their base code and their assistance in tailoring that base code to the uses and needs of the CALMAC website.

Using the weather data presented on CALMAC.org indicates your acceptance of these terms and conditions. You assume responsibility for the selection of the content to achieve your intended results and for the application, use, and results obtained from the use of the content. CALMAC allows you to copy its content for your use in the energy efficiency and demand response realm. This includes ex ante and ex post estimates of energy savings. It does not include making copies of the information, in whole or in part, for the purposes of redistribution, rent, lease, sale, sublicense, assign, or re-posting any of the files on a server for access by others. To obtain permission reproduce the information for any of these prohibited uses, please contact WBT at support@whiteboxtechnologies.com.

Neither CALMAC nor WBT claim copyrights nor ownership rights to the hourly solar radiation data that were obtained by permission from the US National Solar Radiation Database (NSRDB), Version 2.0.0. For information on the NSRDB, please go to <https://nsrdb.nrel.gov/current-version> (last accessed Dec 10 2017). To see NREL39s disclaimer about these data, please go to the NSRDB Data Viewer at <https://maps.nrel.gov/nsrdb-viewer/> and click on the 34About34 button.

Disclaimer of Warranties

Neither CALMAC nor WBT warrant that the information presented on CALMAC.org is free of errors. This information is provided "as is" without warranty of any kind, either expressed or implied. The entire risk as to the quality of the data is borne by the user. In no event will CALMAC or WBT be liable for damages, including, without limitation, any lost profits, lost savings, or other incidental or consequential damages arising out of the use of or inability to use this information.

Additional License

This product is principally intended for use in energy and demand response savings estimation software as applied to California. Any or all of the data on CALMAC.org may be embedded or applied in other work without written permission from CALMAC or WBT. For software developers who wish to incorporate the data in a commercial or noncommercial product, or that desire the data for areas other than California, please e- mail support@whiteboxtechnologies.com for details.
